

TAZMANIA ACCIDENT CLAIMS THE LIFE OF OZ RIDER

Judd Greedy 1980 – 2009

Supersport racer Judd Greedy passed away on Sunday 5th April after suffering a crash while leading the Tasmanian round of the Australian Supersport Championship at Symmons' Plains near Launceston. Judd was attended immediately trackside by the Racesafe Paramedics but sustained fatal injuries in the incident.

Two riders in the middle of the pack were unable to avoid Judd and his fallen bike, one of the bikes exploding in a fireball as its fuel tank ignited on impact.

Judd 28, originally from Maitland NSW was leading the championship after receiving his first race win in the Supersport class at Phillip Island at the previous round. Judd had started the year without a sponsor and with a combination of BioMagnetics and Sunstate Racing was able to get his last year's bike to the grid at Phillip Island, winning the first race of the season. Judd's performance had him as one of the favourites to take out this years title and earned him a number of small private sponsorship's from friends and admirers.

Steve and Craig Trinder came to Judd's rescue putting the BioMagnetics team together at the last minute.

Team Manager Steve Trinder "We are devastated with the tragedy of Judd's death and our sincerest thoughts go to Judd's family and friends. We would also like to thank members of the Racesafe team and the track officials who were so supportive. The last thing he said to me was "don't worry Steve, I'll be in front ", and her certainly was.

Sunstate Racing's Rod Lamb "Our thoughts are with Judd's family Rob, Julie and Elissa, and to his many friends both in racing and through his electric personality. Judd was focussed in his goals and despite previous seasons frustrations was on his way to achieve his dream"

He added "Judd left a smile on everyone who knew him especially with his jester antics in the pits"

Judd's favourite quote was "pain is temporary".

Details on the funeral will be published on his internet site at www.juddgreedy.com.au when available.

COLE ODENDAAL

Our own Cole Odendaal (Judd's teammate and friend) was also involved in this unfortunate incident.

Judd (Cole's teammate and friend) crashed out of the lead of race 1 of the Australia Supersport round in Tasmania yesterday and was reportedly unable to get off the track in time. Cole, who had a poor start, was making his way through the field and was unsuspected and unable to avoid Judd's bike. He hit it at speed and was catapulted into the air.

Judd tragically died at the scene. There are no words that can express the depth of our sorrow and sympathy for the Greedy family and friends.

Cole was left unconscious for, reportedly, seven minutes. He was taken to the Launceston hospital and was discharged this morning with only superficial injuries. The other rider, Jake Horne reportedly has a broken leg.
